ABOUT US

In 2009, an asteroid had just hit West Texas. Bowers, 31 at the time, was working for a temp agency contracted by NASA doing site evals and alien cover ups. He was first on the asteroid scene. Expecting to see some form of extraterrestrial life, he arrived wearing a space suit as to not scare any potential other-worldly lifeforms. Instead, he heard another large boom - this time, it wasn't an asteroid. As Bowers turned to investigate the sound, all he could see was a cloud of black smoke settling around a 1966 El Camino (the second generation one where they upgraded to the 6.5 liter V8) smashed into the back of a cop car. There, he sees Skudlarek, age 19, dressed as Winona Ryder, yelling "YOU'LL NEVER TAKE ME ALIVE!"

After a lengthy jail sentence for Skudlarek, the two reunited. Bowers, now 42 years old, had just walked out on his second day working third shift at a Waffle House in Daytona. The pair opened The Bitter Alibi in July of 2014, and we'd normally say "the rest is history" but honestly, not much has changed.
